Introduction

Madeira seems to be a popular destination for our honeymoon clients. On this vacation, we have added in another special touch for honeymooners that do not want only to stay on an island, but also to do a bit of sightseeing for part of the trip.

The first half of the trip is spent on Madeira relaxing and taking romantic nature walks in the sub-tropical forests.

Then for the 2nd half, you will fly into Porto, the Vintage destination of Portugal. Here you will have a chance to visit the city and one of the many Port wine lodges.

Now you will leave Portugal driving up through the Green Coast crossing over the border into Galicia, Spain and continuing by highway until you will have time to explore the area and then continue up to visit Santiago de Compostela the Capital of Galicia, and the end of the Pilgrimage way to Santiago, which is celebrating the Holy Year Xacobeo 2004. Here you will enjoy a privately guided tour of the old quarter.

As well as exploring the Rias Baixas coast, visit a small village and stay in the noble town of Baiona. You will enjoy a wine day tour with a local wine guide visiting one of the many Albariño wineries in the wine region D.O. Rias Baixas.

Ending your trip you will drive by highway down to Lisbon, the vibrant capital of Portugal, where you will stay your last couple of days visiting the city and the surrounding villages like Sintra and Cascais.
